4. PROCEDURE

4.1 General

The form Plant Health Assurance Certificate (Attachment 1) is used to provide evidence of treatment or that produce meets a condition from a business operating under an ICA arrangement.

The form may be used to provide evidence to other State or Territory Plant Quarantine Authorities of conformance with applicable quarantine entry conditions for consignments moving from the Northern Territory.

4.2 Completion of Plant Health Assurance Certificates

The form may be completed by handwriting, typing or stamping the information in the space provided. The information must be neat and legible and the same information must be included on each copy.

Numbering is in accordance with the blank example certificate shown as Attachment 1

Insert the name and physical address of the person or business consigning the produce.

The consignor is the person or business responsible for deciding where the produce will be sent next after leaving the facility which prepared the produce for certification. The consignor will normally be the owner of the produce, but may be an agent of the owner who makes marketing decisions on behalf of the owner.

(b) IP No. of Acc. Business

Insert the "A" Registration (IP) Number of the ICA accredited business that operates the facility in which the produce was prepared for certification whose name and address is entered at (e) Accredited Business that Prepared the Produce.

This IP Number must be the same as the IP Number marked on the packages after the produce was prepared and packed.

EXAMPLE OF COMMON MARKETING ARRANGEMENTS

Grower Direct to Wholesaler

In cases where the grower prepares and packs the produce and makes the decision as to which wholesaler (agent, merchant or buyer) the certified produce will be consigned, the grower is the consignor and the wholesaler is the consignee.

Grower to Marketer then to Wholesaler

In cases where the grower prepares and packs the produce and then consigns certified produce to a marketer (marketing body, co-operative or other marketing organisation) locally or in another centre, and that marketer decides to which person or business the produce will be next consigned, the grower is the consignor and the marketer is the consignee.

Grower to a Grading or Treatment Facility

In cases where the grower sends produce to another business where it is packed and/or prepared and then certified, but the grower makes the decision as to which person or business the certified produce will be consigned, the grower is the consignor and the person or business to which the produce is consigned is the consignee.

In cases where a grower sends produce to another business where it is packed and/or prepared and then certified, but the packer or treater makes the decision as to which person or business the certified produce will be consigned, the packer or treater is the consignor and the person or business to which the produce is consigned is the consignee.

The name and address of either the grower or the packer is entered in the "Grower or Packer" section depending on which name is marked on the packages.

Wholesaler or Marketer to Another Person or Business

In cases where a wholesaler or marketer has purchased produce prior to grading or treatment and certification, and the wholesaler or marketer makes the decision on where the produce is consigned, the wholesaler or marketer is the consignor and the person or business to which the produce is consigned is the consignee.

Re-consignee

Where the consignee (wholesaler or marketer) re-consigns certified produce to another person or business, the person or business to which the produce is re-consigned is the re-consignee.
